Claims 6-10 have been added. Claims 1-10 have been renumbered as 29-38 in accordance with Rule 126. The active claims are 29-38.

Applicants are reminded of the continuing obligation to update the status of co-pending patent applications on page 1 of the specification.

Figure 1 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.84(o) and (p) because elements 120, 102, 116, 106 and the 4 arrow element do not have any meaningful legends and the latter further does not have reference number.

A rejection based on double patenting of the "same invention" type finds its support in the language of 35 U.S.C. 101 which states that "whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process ... may obtain a patent therefor ..." (Emphasis added). Thus, the term "same invention," in this context, means an invention drawn to identical subject matter. See Miller v. Eagle Mfg. Co., 151 U.S. 186 (1894); In re Ockert, 245 F.2d 467, 114 USPQ 330 (CCPA 1957); and In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970).

A statutory type (35 U.S.C. 101) double patenting rejection can be overcome by canceling or amending the conflicting claims so they are no longer coextensive in scope. The filing of a terminal disclaimer cannot overcome a double patenting rejection based upon 35 U.S.C. 101.

Claims 29-32 and 34- 38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1 and 11-12 of prior U.S. Patent No. 6,205,543. This is a double patenting rejection.

Art Unit: 2155

The operand data storage in claim 29 of the instant application is no different from the executive storage recited in claim 1 of the patent in that they are both recited for storing data which are acted upon by the processor.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 33 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 20 of U.S. Patent No. 6,205,543. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the apparatus of claim 33 implements the method step of patented claim 20.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 34 and 37-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Emer (6,470,433) .

Emer taught a context switch controller (line 36 column 1) in a processor comprising:
a data storage (physical registers, line 61 column 4), a dirty bit storage (line 4 column 5) and a dirty bit logic ((the circuit which sts or resets the valid bit, line 5 column 5).

Although Emer did not make clear that the data storage is divided into groups, one of ordinary skill in the art should readily recognize that there are more than one registers in the data storage and each of the registers can be considered as a group.

In the communication filed on October 2002, Applicants contended that there is no literal infringement analysis. The Examiner has corresponds each of the rejected claims to the patent claims. Applicants fail to provide any arguments as to why the elements of the rejected claims do not correspond to the elements in the patented claims.

Art Unit: 2155

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a).

Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
